NOTE: By law, you must claim your commission within 60 days after it is issued. If you fail to do so the commission becomes void, and you must submit a new application and a new fee to become a Notary.

You should receive notice that your commission has been issued within six or seven weeks. If you have not received such a notice by the end of seven weeks, check with the Secretary of the Commonwealth's Office by calling (804) 786-2441 or by writing through e-mail to socmail@governor.virginia.gov

Sometimes, notices are lost in the mail. It is up to you to check with the Secretary of the Commonwealth, if your notice is overdue. Failure to receive a notice will not permit you to receive a commission after the 60-day period has expired.

The Commonwealth of Virginia requests that each Notary Public Applicant submit a Social Security Number on a voluntary basis. This number is used as a unique number for the applicant and recipient identification in processing forms for application and appointment.

(Public Law 93-579, referred to as the Federal Privacy Act, became effective September 27, 1975. Section 6(b) of this law requires that any Federal, State or Local Agency which requests an individual to disclose his/her Social Security Number inform the individual whether that disclosure is mandatory or voluntary, by which statutory or other authority the number is solicited, and what uses could be made of it.)*
